

Advancing the Mission Through Philanthropy

AAUW Resources

Contributions Basics and Giving Online

Learn about the giving opportunities to support the mission of AAUW at <http://www.aauw.org/contribute/index.cfm>.

Development/Fundraising Officer Resources

In the Member Center of the AAUW website, you can find the Development/Fundraising Officer Resources section, which provides an overview of key AAUW development information and is useful for anyone responsible for AAUW fundraising, whether on the state, branch, or individual level. These resources include a downloadable teleseminar, a collection of state/branch fundraising events, the FundFacts e-newsletter, and information on matching gifts. Access these resources by logging into the Member Center at http://www.aauw.org/member_center/branches_states/DevelopmentFundraising.cfm.

Establishing a Named Fellowship or Grant

Endowed funds can pay tribute to individuals of distinction or celebrate the work of AAUW branches and states while providing critical funding to outstanding woman scholars, educators, and community leaders. To read more about the instructions and application, please visit the Membership Resources page at <http://www.aauw.org/contribute/establish.cfm>.

Conference of State Leaders Development Resources

Development Resources include a PowerPoint presentation on cross-corporate development and workshop material for helping states to make the fundraising-programmatic link. Visit the 2006 Conference materials through the Member Center at http://www.aauw.org/member_center/branches_states/2006leaderconf/documents.cfm.

Contribution Report Form

In the Member Center you can access the Contribution Report Form and directions to submit contributions to the Association, AAUW Educational Foundation, AAUW Legal Advocacy Fund, and AAUW Leadership and Training Institute. Find these directions and the form at http://www.aauw.org/member_center/forms/contribution_report.cfm.
