

MENTORING: THE KEY TO RETENTION AND LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

The mentoring program can be used by branch leaders can use the mentoring program to improve membership retention and to train potential leaders from incoming members.

The program identifies obstacles to retaining members and training potential leaders. The plan includes strategies to overcome obstacles, to encourage new member involvement in branch activities, and to provide a supportive environment for leadership development.