

FREE FINANCIAL LITERACY RESOURCES

PURPOSE: To direct branches and individuals to free financial literacy resources

GOAL: To have branches include financial literacy in their programming and projects

MONEY SMART

1. The resource is very easy to access.
2. Money Smart is a free resource from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
3. It is an Adult Education Program Building Knowledge, Security, and confidence
4. The order form can accessed at www2.fdic.gov/moneysmartregister/
5. Anyone interested in financial education can use Money Smart.
6. “Money Smart can be easily reproduced for wide dissemination and has no copyright restrictions. Money Smart is free to users.” This quoted information was taken from the FDIC website.

HANDS on BANKING

1. This free resource may be picked up at a Wells Fargo Bank.
2. It contains modules for kids in 4th & 5th grades, teens in 6 to 8th grade, high school, and adults.
3. The lessons are usable by individuals and in classrooms or community venues.
4. The lessons are narrated, animated, colorful and fun.
5. The copyright statement taken from the disk. “By using the Hands on Banking you agree not to copy, license, or sell the content or design.

The materials are easily reproduced and have no copyright restrictions. ...
<http://www2.fdic.gov/moneysmartregister/>