

Branch members attend an AAUW of Michigan event.

About AAUW

Mission: To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy.

Vision: Equity for all.

Values: Nonpartisan. Fact-based. Principled. Inclusive and Intersectional.

AAUW of Michigan

AAUWMI, a state affiliate of AAUW, has 1900 members in 30 branches. AAUWMI supports local branches and offers programs, regional workshops and a state convention.

AAUWBigRapids@gmail.com

Join AAUW–Big Rapids

Our Contact Information:

Email: AAUWBigRapids@gmail.com

Facebook: @AAUWBigRapids

Web: <https://bigrapids-mi.aauw.net/>

Connect with AAUW

National: www.aauw.org

Michigan: www.aauwmi.org

Visit to the FSU Museum of Sexist Objects

Founded in 1881, AAUW is the nation's leading voice promoting equity and education for women and girls. The Big Rapids branch was chartered in 1946.

AAUW-Big Rapids members led the effort to induct local women's suffrage leader Anna Howard Shaw into the National Women's Hall of Fame.

75

75+ years of service in the Big Rapids area

Annual used book sale

Our signature fundraiser provides for educational awards for nontraditional students at Ferris State University.

A past book sale

2021 Recipients

AAUW EDUCATIONAL AWARDS

About AAUW-Big Rapids Branch

Programs and activities relate to AAUW's mission to advance equity for women and girls and include networking and social activities.

Empowering women since 1946

Created 4.5.2022

Past programs

Evening of mixed media at Artworks

Women in Local Government Panel

Floral Arrangement Workshop at Patterson's